My Website – Assessment Criteria

Teacher:

Before you begin to create your website you need to think carefully about who it is aimed at (the audience) and what it is for (the purpose).

Audience:	Purpose:
-----------	----------

Next you need to think carefully about what it should be like. Complete the spider diagram below by listing all the features that, if met, would make it a successful website for your purpose and audience. Some have been done for you. You need to add more!

Homepage design

1) Sketch out your homepage

2) Complete the notes, giving reasons for your decisions
